

Bringing us all the biggest hits from Madonna's phenomenal 25 years of world domination, Vogue Madonna go to the extremes in their attention to detail in this spectacular stage show. The voice, the moves and the image are all perfectly recreated by uncanny lookalike, Elly Jarmain, who, backed by a powerhouse band and team of dancers, reminds us all why Madonna is the biggest selling female artist of all time.

The show, complete with stunning video projection* of spinning disco balls, crucifixes, rodeo riders, conical bras..., is based around the Queen of Pop's sell out tours, so be prepared for all the iconography! In fact, this show creates such a buzz that audiences frequently turn up in full Madonna costume themselves!

Vogue Madonna touches the heart of 80s nostalgia with songs such as Like A Virgin and Holiday. They entice us to the dance floor with Vogue and the new-age Ray Of Light. They gallop on into the noughties with Music, and just when you start to wonder how many more instantly recognizable songs Madonna could possibly have released, launch into her modern chart successes - Hung Up and 4 Minutes.

It's Madonna - how she was and how she is... and the superb musicians make it clear why, despite the Material Girl's usual association with pop, Vogue Madonna have been rocking out and selling out all over the world for the last ten years.

Vogue Madonna have also earned themselves a reputation for thrilling corporate audiences. Their impressive client list includes industry giants such as Microsoft and HSBC, and they have been a regular feature at events for Chanel, Dolce & Gabbana, Givenchy and Versace."

"From the Gaultier corset to the leotard and legwarmers, Vogue Madonna takes you through a stunning rendition of hits. It's uncanny how the look, the voice and the atmosphere take you through the years of the Material Girl! If you're Desperately Seeking great entertainment... book Vogue Madonna and Get Into the Groove!"

Des Davis - Givenchy

* Video projection – If lighting conditions and budget permit the use of a big screen and video projection